Petty Pool has a commitment to promote inclusion, challenge discrimination and value and celebrate the diversity of its staff, students, and visitors. The Trust accepts its legal responsibilities and welcomes people of all ages, gender, races and ethnic origin, sexual orientation, disability, or any other criteria not specifically related to potential, skill, or ability.

Petty Pool seeks to provide and promote access to opportunities in a safe and supportive environment in which everyone, both students and staff, can study, work, and develop social skills to the best of their ability.

Petty Pool welcomes full and effective consultation with students, tutors, carers, and other professionals on matters of equality and diversity. Our aim is to be proactive rather than reactive. Staff and students work to create a climate in which everyone, including visitors, is treated with fairness and respect. We will promote community co-hesion in all our activities.

It is the intention that students and staff be treated with fairness and respect. At the heart of the policy is the belief that the environment we provide will value every member of the community and encourage people to treat each other with dignity.

Elements of equality, diversity and inclusion are delivered to students as part of their academic curriculum. Other issues are discussed in group tutorial, or, if more appropriate in a one-to-one situation. Tutors and non-teaching staff will always take time to discuss with individuals or groups of student's appropriate behaviours and to explore attitudes and prejudices in an appropriate way.

In relation to staff, the policy and practice of Petty Pool requires that all the staff are afforded equal opportunities within employment, and that entry into employment with Petty Pool and the progression within employment will be determined only by personal merit, (and the application of criteria which are related to the duties of each particular post and the relevant salary structure.)

In all cases, ability to perform the job is the primary consideration. Subject to statutory provisions, no applicant, member of staff or student will be treated less favorably than another because of any 'Protected Characteristic(s)' applicable specifically to them.

Petty Pool will not tolerate any form of behavior or activity that discriminates on the grounds of gender, marital status, family responsibilities, sexual orientation, colour, race, nationality, religious belief, ethnicity, disability, age and / or unrelated criminal convictions.

9	DIFFERENTIATION FOR LLDD IN PRACTICE	Petty Pool adheres to the Principles of the 0-25 SEND Code of Practice in that we believe all children have a right to an education that enables them to make progress so they: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · achieve their best · become confident individuals and live fulfilling lives · make a successful transition into becoming an adult – whether that’s into further/ higher education, training or work All children with special educational needs (SEN) or disabilities should have their needs met, whether they are in early years settings (like a nursery or a childminder), in school or in college. Differentiation in Educational Practice All students will be encouraged and supported as required to explore and achieve to an extent appropriate to their own abilities. Differentiation that occurs naturally is embraced and used as guide in lesson and activity planning, for example: During Practical Exercises - The assignment of individual independent tasks during practical exercises as students display varying levels of ability or more simplistic tasks with 1:1 support for those whose progress takes longer. Comprehension - When instructions are given and / or during Q&A sessions and discussion, they will be challenged accordingly - depending on their progress and the range of vocabulary they respond to. Resources Where necessary, differentiated worksheet resources are provided for students working on the same subject at different levels, students who have a visual impairment and may require coloured paper, magnified text and larger worksheets, and non-writers who require symbols and photographs to enhance understanding. PC accessibility options are used and where appropriate, screen magnifiers, roller-ball mice and keyboard stickers etc. There is also at least one conventional PC is available in every classroom for

		the production of written coursework evidence, for those who are unable to use a pen. Group Work During group work, students may be given varied tasks on a similar theme and divided according to their ability, where in contrast, learners at different levels may be paired together to allow the more able learner to play a supportive role and impart knowledge and the less advanced student to learn from their peer. Differentiated Documents Any document which is intended for student use is presented in a format which will enhance their ability to understand its content. 'Student Friendly' Documentation such as this, uses Century Gothic Font (Size 16 Minimum), and symbols and/or photographs where possible. Current Examples include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The Complaints Form - Student Friendly Mission Statement - Student Disciplinary Code - Student Questionnaire - Partnership for Learning Agreement - 2 Week Trial Agreement - Student Data Protection Agreement Any document which is not currently available in student-friendly format will be adapted upon request.
10	PROCEDURE FOR DEALING WITH DISCRIMINATORY ATTITUDES/ BEHAVIOUR AND INCIDENTS	Procedure For Reporting, Recording and Managing an Incident Any incidents occurring, student-student or student – staff, or staff- student, or staff - staff, which could be deemed discriminatory (this does include bullying where the anti-bullying policy should be followed) should be reported to the line manager. All concerned parties will have an individual interview and all conversations will be recorded on Databridge. Action points will be included if necessary. Action points may involve monitoring an individual, monitoring of the situation, or referring to community health services. Prospective students/their advocates who consider that they have been unfairly treated with respect to their application or are dissatisfied with some aspect of their recruitment procedures should write giving details to the Director of Education. All complaints will be investigated and informed of any action taken.

		Applicants for employment who feel that they have been unfairly treated with regard to their application or are dissatisfied with some aspect of the recruitment and selection procedure should write giving details to the HR Advisor. All complaints will be investigated, and the applicant informed of any action taken in line with the Petty Pool's complaints procedure. When it is deemed necessary, other concerned parties such as Parents & Guardians, SCC, Local Authorities and other relevant professionals will be informed. Persons wishing to make a complaint regarding Equal Opportunities will be referred to the complaints policy and associated procedures.
12.	MONITORING AND EVALUATION	Petty Pool will monitor and review on an annual basis the progress that has been made in effectively implementing and embedding equality and diversity. This audit and action plan will be shared with staff, students and stakeholders if requested.
